DECLARATION.

Declaration of the members of "The Owen Sound Mechanics Institute." Filed in the Office of the Registrar of Deeds in and for the County of Grey, at Sydenham, on the tenth day of October, A.D. 1855, under the provisions of 14 and 15 Victoria, Chapter 86.

[COPY.]

Be it remembered that on the tenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, We, the undersigned, in accordance with the provisions of an act passed in the fifteenth year of the reign of Her Sovereign Majesty Queen Victoria, by the Parliament of the Province of Canada, and entitled "An Act to provide for the incorporation and better management of Library Associations and Mechanics' Institutes," declare as follows:

First.—That it is the intention of the undersigned to establish a Mechanics' Institute and Library Association at the Town of Sydenham, in the County of Grey, under the name of "The Owen Sound Mechanics' Institute.

Second.—That the purpose of the said Institute is to promote the intellectual and moral improvement of the members and others, to be admitted according to the regulations and By-Laws of the Society, by providing a Library and Reading-room for their use, and by the delivery of lectures.

Third.—That the amount subscribed and paid by the members respectively, is one pound and five shillings cy.: amounting in the whole, to over one hundred and twenty-five pounds, which has been invested in books.

Fourth.—That Thomas Lunn, George Snyder, William Alexander Stephens, John Creasor, Jr., Henry Macpherson, William Carson Boyd, William Armstrong, Samuel Jonathan Lane, William Bull, William Smith, Joseph Maughan, Thomas Bolton Horton, George Lee, and John George Francis, Esquires, and the Rev. Ludwick Kribs, are the first Trustees for managing the affairs of the Institute.

Fifth.—That the Trustees of the Institute consisting of a President, First and Second Vice-Presidents, and twelve Directors, (six of the Directors to be either mechanics or persons carrying on a mechanical business,) shall hereafter be appointed by the vote of a majority of the members present, at a general Annual Meeting of the members, to be held on the first Monday, in April, in each succeeding year, or at such other time as may be appointed by the Regulations and By-Laws of the Corporation.

Sixth.—That special meetings of the members may be called at any time, in such manner as shall be provided for by the By-Laws and Regulations of the Corporation.

Seventh.—That new members may be admitted in a manner—to be provided for by the Regulations and By-Laws of the Corporation—to be passed by a vote of a majority of the members present at any General Annual Meeting, or at a special Meeting called for that purpose.

Eighth.—That the shares of members may be transferred or forfeited; and that the mode and conditions of transferring and forfeiting such shares, shall be regulated by the By-Laws of the Corporation.

Ninth.—That the Regulations and By-Laws of the Corporation passed by the Trustees, may be repealed, altered, or amended, by a majority of the members present at a General Annual Meeting, or a special Meeting called for that purpose; and that the Trustees shall not have power to alter in any way so much of said Regulations or By-Laws, as shall be so repealed, altered, or amended at such meeting: Provided, always, that written notice of an intention to repeal, alter, or amend any regulation or By-Law, pointing out such part of the regulation or By-Law as shall be objected to, shall be given to the Secretary, at least fourteen days before such meeting.

Tenth.—That the Corporation may be dissolved by a vote of two-third's of the whole members of the Corporation, subject to the provisions of the said statute.

BY-LAWS.

By-Law 1. Passed by a Public Meeting of members 22nd Oct., 1855.

Becoming a member. That any person on the recommendation in writing of one Shareholder, may become a member of this Corporation, by paying the sum of £1 5s. 0d. currency to the Secretary, and signing an agreement to keep all the Laws and Regulations of the Corporation in the Minute Book of the Institute.

By-Law 2. Passed by Directors 10th Nov., 1855. To regulate membership.

Members. 1. Ordinary members, whose subscriptions are paid up are eligible to all offices, to vote at all elections of officers or Committee men, and on all questions relative to the conduct of officers or members, or to the property of the Corporation; to the use of the Library, Reading-room, and Museum; to attend Lectures, Classes, or Conversations under the rules made by the Committee, and on payment of the fees annexed thereto.

Shares. 2. Shares in this Institute may be transferred by applying to the Secretary, and paying a fee of one shilling and three pence for such transfer, on the transferee signing an agreement to keep all the Laws and Regulations of the Corporation in the Minute Book of the Institute, and being recommended in writing by some other member than the transferer.

Subscription. 3. The annual subscription shall be five shillings, to be paid in advance. No subscription payable for the period previous to the first of April next, and shareholders neglecting or refusing to pay their dues and fines within one month after they become due, shall be deprived of the privileges of the Corporation until payment of all arrears; and neglecting for two years, shall forfeit their shares.

By-Law 3. Passed by Directors 10th Nov., 1855. To regulate the duties of Officers.

President. 1. The President shall preside at all Meetings of the Corporation or general Committee, and in case of an equal division of the Members on any question shall give the casting vote, he shall have power to call Meetings of the Corporation or general Committee on his own motion, or on the requisition of four Committee men, or twelve members.

Vice-President. 2. In the absence of the President, one of the Vice-Presidents shall preside, in the precedence in which they stand in the list of officers, and in the absence of the President, either of the Vice-Presidents may call any Meeting which it is competent for the President to call.

3. The Secretary shall accurately and at large record the proceedings of the Corporation and Committee, announce all Meetings, sign all certificates of membership, receive all moneys from members, and pay the same to the Treasurer, keeping an account thereof, and shall have the charge and custody of the seal, he shall keep copies of all letters written by him, on the business of the Corporation or Committee, or a proper book for reference; also, regular files of all letters and other papers, which may be addressed to him, relating to the business of the Corporation or Committee.

4. The Treasurer shall receive all moneys and hold the same, subject to the order of the Committee, he shall pay no bill, unless sanctioned by them and signed by their Chairman, and shall make a report of all his receipts and disbursements.

5. When the books are taken in charge by the Librarian, he shall make out a full and complete Catalogue of them, and at the foot of said Catalogue, the Librarian is to sign a receipt to the following effect:—"I do hereby acknowledge that the books specified in the preceding Catalogue, have been delivered to me by the Board of Trustees of the Owen Sound Mechanics' Institute, to be carefully kept by me as their Librarian; to be accounted for by me to the Board of Trustees, and to be, delivered by me to my successor in office whenever directed so to do by the said Board of Trustees."

Liability of Librarian. 6. The Librarian shall be accountable to the Corporation for the cost of every book that is missing, or for the whole series of which it may form a part, he shall be accountable in like manner for any injury the book may have sustained, by being soiled, defaced, torn, or otherwise injured, and can be relieved from such accountability by the Trustees only, upon its being shown to them that some shareholder or reader is chargeable for the damages, or loss of the book.

Duties of Librarian. 7. The Librarian shall see that in each book belonging to the Library; the number of the book and the name of this Association be printed on a label, (posted on the inside of the cover of the book,) and he is on no account to deliver out any book which is not thus numbered and marked.

Librarian. 8. The Librarian is to act at all times in all things according to the orders of the Trustees; and whenever he is removed, he is to deliver to his successor in office all Books and Catalogues appertaining, belonging, or relating to the Library, and if they are found to be satisfactory, the Trustees shall give him a receipt to that effect; but if any books shall have been lost, or found to have sustained any injury, the Librarian shall pay the cost or value of such book lost, or the damage unless released by the Board of Trustees. He shall also, keep a Catalogue of the books, open to the inspection of each member entitled to draw books.

Library hours. 9. The Librarian shall keep the Library open on every Friday, from 9 o'clock, A.M. to 9 P.M.; and on every other evening except Sunday, from 6 P.M. to 8 P.M.

Reports. 10. The Secretary, Treasurer, or Librarian, shall report any circumstance within their respective departments, affecting the interests of the Corporation at the next Meeting of the Committee, and shall specially report when required to do so.

Meeting of Trustees. 11. Meeting of the Trustees may be called by the Secretary on his own motion, or on the requisition of any three Committee men, or six members.

Duties, Powers, &c., of Trustees. 12. The Trustees shall have the custody of the property of the Corporation; they shall receive and pay all monies for rent, attendance, purchase of books, instruments, objects for a Museum, or other necessary purposes; they shall have power to make regulations for the care and distribution of the Library ; to procure lectures to be delivered ; to expel, suspend, or fine members for non-payment of their subscription, or for immoral or improper language or conduct, or for introducing political or religious discussions. In all cases of expulsion, except for non-payment of fees or subscriptions, the expelled member shall have the right of appeal to the next general Meeting of the Corporation. To fine or suspend the privileges of any member or reader chargeable with loss or damage to any of the books, to fix the sums to be paid by members for attending classes, or for any other privilege which requires separate payments ; to make regulations for the admission of non-members to lectures, or other benefits of the Corporation ; to appoint sub-committee's to execute part of their works ; and, as a body are fully empowered to execute any measures to promote the objects of the Corporation, and shall annually present a report of their proceedings to the members.

By-Law 4. Passed by Directors 10th Nov., 1855. To regulate library.

Non-members 1. Non-members may be admitted. admitted. to the privileges of the Library as readers, on payment to the Secretary of ten shillings per annum, in advance ; six shillings and three-pence for three months', and signing an agreement to keep all the Laws and Regulations of the Corporation in the Minute Book of the Institute.

2. Members upon application to the Librarian may take two volumes from the Room, and retain them for the time specified therein, and if desired, an extension of one week shall be given: provided, no other member shall have left a written request for the volume or volumes; in the meantime, no member shall have more than two volumes in his possession at any one time, unless by the consent of the Library Committee, for valid reasons to be shown to them.

3. Any member or reader allowing a book in his possession to be injured for the purposes of reading, by being torn out, or otherwise, shall replace it with a new one of the same description, or pay its cost price within two months, if the book is soiled or torn in such manner as not to injure it: for reading, he shall pay such fine within one month as shall be imposed by the sub-Committee, subscribers shall have the option of keeping such injured books, (or the set to which they belong, as the case may be,) and paying the cost price of such books, or set of books.

4. Any member or reader keeping a book beyond the specified time.

incur a fine of one half-penny for every day beyond such time ; and for lending a book out of his own house, shall incur a fine of two shillings and six-pence.

5. All fines are payable within one month after the proper time of returning the book which was the occasion of the fine ; members or readers are debarred the privilege of the Library after such one month until such fines are paid, or the place of such book supplied as before provided.

6. It shall be the duty of the Librarian to report to the sub-Committee any injury to a book, within one week after discovery of the same, and the sub-Committee shall decide upon the case within one week after such report.

7. Any member or reader feeling aggrieved by a decision of the sub-Committee, with respect to any book or books, may appeal to the Board of Trustees at their next meeting, by giving a written notice to the Secretary, and paying in the amount of fine or assessment, which is to be refunded to him, in case the Trustees decide in favour of the appeal.
